In certain situations, adult foster children must request not to be considered as tax partners of their foster parent.

People who do not reside in the Netherlands and who do not qualify as foreign tax payers cannot qualify as tax partners.

Children

Do you have children living at home? If so: please enter the children's initials, dates of birth and citizen service numbers (BSNs) below.

Initials	Date of birth	Citizen service number (BSN)

Tax returns

If available, please furnish:

- Provisional 2022 tax return(s)/refund(s).
- If we will be taking care of your tax returns for the first time this year: a copy of your tax return for 2021.
- Possible decisions about childcare allowance for 2022, rent allowance for 2022, child-based budget for 2022 or care allowance for 2022.

Work and other income

Income from employers, pensions, etc.

In 2022, did you have:

- income from employment;
- benefits (from the body implementing employee insurance schemes (UWV), Social Insurance Bank (SVB), etc.);
- pension benefits or an annuity benefit from which wage tax has been withheld.

In all cases, enclose a copy of the 2022 annual statement(s) and the most recent salary slip of the employer(s) or benefit agency(ies).

Company car or bicycle

If you drive a company car or bicycle, your employer will already have deducted the tax that has to be paid on the addition from your wages. You do not have to provide any details.

Statement of no private use of car

If you drive less than 500 kilometres for private purposes, you can request a statement of no private use of car from the Tax and Customs Administration. If you have done so and handed this statement over to your employer, no tax will have been withheld.

There is a good chance that the Tax and Customs Administration will ask you to prove that you have indeed driven so few private kilometres. You can prove this with a detailed driver's logbook (see www.belastingdienst.nl). This must show which journeys you have made on which dates. The destinations and the number of kilometres driven must also be stated. You do not have to furnish the driver's logbook.

Commuting by public transport

Have you regularly travelled to work by public transport? If so, please furnish:

<input type="checkbox"/> A copy of your employer's public transport or travel statement.
<input type="checkbox"/> If you didn't travel throughout the year: the period of travel (you do not need to include the period in which you did not travel because you were working from home due to Covid-19):

Provision of capital to an affiliated person or private limited company

If you make capital available to your own private limited company or to a company or private limited company of an affiliated person, you must declare that capital and the result thereof as results from other activities. This could include renting out business premises, a warehouse, independent workspace or having a claim. But other situations are also possible. Even if, under unusual conditions within the family sphere, you make capital available to a company or private limited company of a family member, the provisioning scheme may apply. We therefore ask you to inform us whether you have (financial) ties with 'affiliated companies or entities'. If so, please furnish us with the following information:

- The name and address details or the name and registered place of business of the associated company or private limited company;
- An indication of the nature of association (for example: 'enterprise of partner' or 'private limited company of father');
- The value(s) as at 1 January 2022 and 31 December 2022 of the capital made available;
- The most recent Valuation of Immovable Property Act (WOZ) statement of the real estate that may have been made available;
- Revenues and costs.

If you are the spouse or registered partner of the associated person, the marriage articles are important for the tax return. This also applies if your spouse or registered partner makes the assets available to an associated person.

Income from substantial interest

<input type="checkbox"/> Are you (together with your partner) the owner of at least 5% of the shares in a private or public limited company?	Yes / No
<input type="checkbox"/> If so, did you receive a dividend in 2022 or did you sell (part of) these shares?	Yes / No
<input type="checkbox"/> If so, please provide a specification of the income and dividend tax withheld, or the sale proceeds	€

Other assets and liabilities (in the Netherlands and abroad)

Bank accounts, savings, receivables and cash

- The balances of all bank and savings accounts as at 1 January 2022 and 31 December 2022 (copy of annual statement). Including those of minor children;
- The balance as at 1 January 2022 and 31 December 2022 (specification) of the receivables;
- Cash if more than € 560 (€ 1,120 for partners) as at 1 January 2022 and 31 December 2022. This includes any possession of crypto currency.

Securities and other investments, in the broadest sense of the word, but excluding immovable properties:

- An overview of the composition and value as at 1 January 2022 and 31 December 2022 (e.g. your bank's fund statement);
- The amount of dividend tax withheld in 2022;
- The amount of foreign dividends received in 2022 and foreign dividend tax withheld per fund;
- For endowment insurance: a copy of the policy (to assess whether an exemption applies, unless it has already been provided) and the annual statement of accrued value;
- Indicate green investments separately. Exemption may apply in this respect.

Other assets, NOT for personal use in your own household

- Examples: Contents of a rented house, a rented caravan or boat;
- An overview of their values as at 1 January 2022 and 31 December 2022.

Works of art (at least 70% investment)

- Examples: collection of works of art for investment, collection of vintage / veteran cars for investment;
- An overview of their values as at 1 January 2022 and 31 December 2022.

Debts

- All debts such as debts for the purchase of a second home, boat, caravan, debts to banks, credit card companies, department stores, suppliers of gas, water, electricity, internet and telephone services, etc. (but not the debt entered into for one's own home);
- An overview of their values as at 1 January 2022 and 31 December 2022.

Special deductions

Health expenses

If you paid a significant amount of medical expenses in 2022 that are not reimbursed by your insurance, you may be entitled to a deduction for medical expenses. Medical expenses include unreimbursed costs of doctors, hospitals, treatments prescribed by a doctor and medical devices. Dietary and transport costs may also be deductible under certain conditions. Medical expenses do not include, for example, premiums for your health insurance, personal contributions or excesses under the Health Insurance Act, expenses for care that is compulsorily insured under the Health Insurance Act, funeral costs, personal contributions under the WLZ and WMO, glasses or contact lenses, eye laser treatments, mobility scooters, wheelchairs, adjustments to a home, certain in vitro fertilisation treatments, crutches, walkers, rollators, expenses for mental healthcare or dyslexia of minors.

- Please enclose a specification of the amounts paid.

Educational expenses

From 1 January 2022, study expenses are no longer deductible. Instead, you can apply for a STAP budget from the UWV.

Partner maintenance

Did you pay partner maintenance to your ex-spouse or ex-partner in 2022?
(this does not include child maintenance amounts)

- The amount paid in 2022;
- Name, address details and citizen service number (BSN) of your ex-spouse or ex-partner.

Annuity premiums

- The premiums paid in 2022;
- A copy of the policy (not the proposal), unless previously provided;
- The pension statement (UPO) of your employer's pension fund for 2022.

Occupational disability insurances

- The premiums paid in 2022;
- A copy of the policy, unless previously provided.

Donations

Have you made periodic or one-off donations to a Public Benefit Organisation (ANBI)? This could include voluntary work, where you have waived an expense reimbursement to which you were entitled. The donations must be proven in writing. The donations must total more than € 60. Moreover, the donations must exceed a threshold of 1% of the (joint) aggregate income (before deduction of personal deductions) (unless it concerns a so-called periodic donation).

- Please enclose a specification of the amounts paid.

NB: In 2022, personal deductions are also only deductible at a rate of up to 40%.

Additional information

This questionnaire only covers the most common situations. We kindly request that you inform us of any subjects that are not included in this form, but which may be of importance for your tax return. Please contact us if you have any doubts. Rather one question too many than an incorrect tax return!

It is advisable to contact us in any case if one of the following situations applies to you:

- You have a company or have started your own business (e.g. as a freelancer).
- You are co-entitled in a company.
- You have received an inheritance or gift, or you have given someone a gift yourself.
- You are entitled to a(n) (undivided) share in an inheritance.
- You have shares, claims, rights or debts for which it must be assumed that benefits to be gained from them would also be considered a reward for work performed.
- You have segregated private assets or you are the heir of someone who has done so.
- You have become divorced in 2022 or will soon become divorced.
- You have begun cohabiting in 2022 or will soon do so.
- You emigrated in 2022 or are planning to do so soon.
- You sold your old home or bought another one in 2022 or you are planning to do so soon.
- You temporarily rented out your former home in 2022 or you are planning to do so soon.
- You rented out (im)movable properties or lent money to the business of a family member or partner in 2022 or you are planning to do so soon.
- You rent more than 50 independent houses in the Netherlands below the rental limit of € 752.33 (landlord levy).

NB:

We will take care of your tax return as cheaply as possible. This is why we need the complete and correct details. Please contact us if you are not sure which information is considered important.

We accept no liability if the information provided by you is incorrect and/or incomplete.
